RESTAURANT AIDS CHEST

Patrons of Huff's Restaurant will not only be satisfying their noonday hunger but also indirectly helping 167 health and welfare services if they come to lunch, next Tuesday. That day is Huff's first anniversary. All the proceeds of the restaurant received between the hours of 10 a.m. and

Thieves Team Up to Steal Television Set

Two thieves teamed up to steal a $113 portable TV set from Glenn's Radio and TV Shop, 2126 Pacific Coast Highway, Lomita, Glenn Halloway told sheriff's deputies Monday. Halloway said two men came in, inquiring about a used TV set. While he took one man to the rear of the store to look at sets, the other man apparently stole a new set from the front, he said.

HOMECOMING QUEEN CANDIDATES . . . In the race for Homecoming Queen at El Camino are these attractive coeds. Shown are Sandy Eddy, Inglewood; Nancy Jarvis, Inglewood; Jane Daiell, Torrance; Arlene Smith, Torrance; Pat Fickett, Hermosa Beach; Sharlene Wilkins, Inglewood; Gaye Wilson, Torrance; Nancy Bruen, Inglewood; Marlene Lyden, Manhattan Beach; and Sharon Stewart, Torrance. (Not shown are Penny Phillips, Torrance, and Peggy Nell, El Segundo.) The winner will reign over the Warriors' Thanksgiving Day battle with Harbor JC.

5 Torrance Coeds Seeking EC Homecoming Queen Title

Five Torrance coeds are among 12 girls at El Camino College who are vying for the 1957 Homecoming Queen title. The queen will reign over all campus Homecoming activities, climaxing her role with an appearance at the Thanksgiving Day football game between Harbor and El Camino College. The Torrance girls are Arlene Smith, Gaye Wilson, Sharon Stewart, Jane Daiell, and Penny Phillips. Other contestants are Sharlene Wilkins, Nancy Jarvis, Nancy Bruen, and Sandy Eddy, Inglewood; Peggy Nell, El Segundo; Pat Fickett, Hermosa Beach; and Marlene Lyden, Manhattan Beach. Two runners-up will serve as princesses in the Homecoming Week affairs on campus.

Queen Chosen

Judges representing college and civic groups will pick the queen at a banquet to be held on campus next Tuesday. Each candidate will be interviewed and selections made on the basis of personality, character, appearance, and poise.

Currently serving as vice president of the Associated Students of El Camino, Miss Smith lives in Torrance. She is a graduate of Mindoka County High School, Heyburn, Ida. Last year, she edited the college yearbook, the Warrior. The 19-year-old coed is a member of Gamma Phi Delta sorority and the LDS organization on campus. She is a business major.

This Graduate Miss Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stewart, 1917 Middlebrook Rd., is a 1956 graduate of Torrance High, where she was secretary of the senior class. The 18-year-old candidate is president of Gamma Phi Delta sorority and served as princess at the Sweethearts' Ball last spring. She is an elementary education major.
